At the age of 28, Kelly is a 10-year pro. A former WBC and WBO middleweight world champion, he won the titles in September, 2007, with a sensational knockout against previously undefeated defending champion Jermain Taylor. The fight was voted “2007 Fight of the Year” by the Boxing Writers Association of America.

Kelly made three successful title defenses before losing the title against Sergio Martinez in his last fight on April 17.

After the fight, Dan Rafael wrote on ESPN.com [excerpts]: Although Pavlik came on strong in the middle rounds and seemed to be inching ahead, especially after scoring a seventh-round knockdown, Martinez dominated...after opening a terrible cut on Pavlik’s right eye in the ninth round. Pavlik also had a lesser cut on his left eye that opened in the first round, but the one in the ninth was very damaging. Pavlik was never the same after the cut.... Blood flowed freely and Martinez targeted the wound. He swept the final rounds and took the decision. [End Rafael item]

Kelly commented after the fight, “Martinez is a smart fighter. He doubled up on his jab a lot after he cut me. I couldn’t get anything going after the eighth or ninth round. In the last third of the fight, around the eighth or ninth round, he began touching me a lot. I tried, but it was very hard to come back at him. I couldn’t see out of my right eye after he cut it. I could not see his left hand coming. I wasn’t hurting, but he just had a lot of volume of punches.”

Regarding his upcoming fight, Kelly said, “This is life and death for me as a fighter. I must win. The future is now.”

Key Fights – 2010 – LOST WBC, WBO M WORLD TITLES - in his last fight on 4-17-10 in Atlantic City, NJ, he lost a 12 round unanimous decision against lefthanded WBC super welterweight world champion Sergio Martinez (44-2-2): the fight headlined at Boardwalk Hall; Martinez started fast and swept the first four rounds on all three scorecards - he cut Kelly over his left eye in the 1st round, kept him off-balance with movement, and scored repeatedly with his jab and left hand; Kelly rallied in the middle rounds – he swept the 5th, won the 6th round on two scorecards, then scored a knockdown with a right uppercut in the 7th for a 10-8 round on all three scorecards; Kelly won the 8th round on two scorecards, but was cut badly over his right eye in the 9th round; Martinez rallied and finished the fight strongly - he swept the 9th, with one judge scoring the round 10-8 for him, then swept the 10th, 11th, and 12th rounds, and won by scores of 115-111, 115-112, 116-111...

2009 – 3RD WBC-WBO M WORLD TITLE DEFENSE – on 12-19-09 in Youngstown, OH, he TKO'd Miguel Espino (20-2-1): the fight headlined at the Beeghly Center, and Kelly dominated; Espino gave a good effort, but was penalized one point for punching after the bell had ended the 1st round; Kelly consistently landed the harder punches and steadily wore down Espino; Kelly scored two knockdowns in the 4th round, the first with a right uppercut that also bloodied Espino's nose, the second with a left hand-right uppercut combination; he scored another knockdown with a series of punches in the 5th round – Espino got up but was unsteady, and the referee stopped the fight at 1:44; after four rounds, Kelly led by scores of 40-33 on all three scorecards; after the fight, Kelly said, "There was a little bit of rust. I tip my hat to him. He came to fight. He was finding his way inside. He was a determined fighter. The kid fought a great fight."...

2ND WBC-WBO M WORLD TITLE DEFENSE - on 2-21-09 in Youngstown he TKO'd Marco Antonio Rubio (43-4-1): the fight headlined at the Chevrolet Centre; Kelly consistently pressed forward outworked Rubio, and landed the harder punches; Rubio rallied in the 6th round, but Kelly steadily wore him down and Rubio did not continue after the 9th round; after nine rounds, Kelly led by scores of 90-81 on all three scorecards; after the fight, Kelly said, "I knew he was taking a beating. You could feel it and see it. By the eighth round he didn't have anything."...

2008 – on 10-18-08 in Atlantic City he lost a 12 round unanimous decision against former middleweight world champion Bernard Hopkins (48-5-1): the fight headlined at Boardwalk Hall, and Hopkins dominated; he consistently outboxed and outworked Kelly, and landed the sharper punches; Kelly was penalized one point for punching to the back of the head in the 8th round, Hopkins was penalized one point for holding in the 9th; Hopkins rocked Kelly in the 12th round, and won by scores of 117-109, 118-110, 119-106...

1ST WBC-WBO M WORLD TITLE DEFENSE - on 6-7-08 in Atlantic City he TKO'd WBO mandatory challenger Gary Lockett (30-1): the fight headlined at Boardwalk Hall, and Kelly dominated; Kelly scored two knockdowns in the 2nd round – both with a series of right hands - when Lockett went to one knee at two different times; Lockett's nose was also bloodied and he was cut over his left eye in the round; Kelly scored another knockdown when Lockett went to one knee in the 3rd, and Lockett's corner threw in the towel to stop the fight at 1:40; after the fight, Kelly said, "He had good power. My jab was working and it helped me set up a lot of things - it stopped him in his tracks. I was catching him with good shots. He was smart to take a knee when I hit him. I knew each time he took a knee I had buzzed him."...

On 2-16-08 in Las Vegas, NV, he won a 12 round unanimous decision in the non-title rematch against former WBC, WBO and The Ring middleweight world champion Jermain Taylor (27-1-1): the fight headlined at the MGM Grand and drew a reported attendance of 7,706; it was a fast-paced, exciting fight, and several rounds were close, but Kelly constantly pressed forward behind a stiff jab and consistently outworked Taylor; he bloodied Taylor's nose in the 5th round, but his own nose was bloodied in the 6th; Taylor fought effectively in bursts, scored with hard punches, and rallied in the middle rounds, but Kelly staggered him with a right hand in the 11th and finished the 12th round strongly, and Taylor's right eye was swollen nearly shut at the final bell; scored 117-111, 116-112, 115-113; after the fight, Kelly said, "Jermain taking the rematch made the sport better. Taylor was better tonight than in the first fight, but I was better too. I put the pressure on, but he put the pressure back. I thought we both fought a great fight. I'll fight anybody, whoever they throw at me. We're trying to do the sport good."...

2007 – WON WBC, WBO, THE RING M WORLD TITLE - on 9-29-07 in Atlantic City, NJ, he TKO'd previously undefeated defending champion Jermain Taylor (27-0-1): the bout headlined at Boardwalk Hall and drew a crowd of 10,127, an estimated 5,000 of whom made the six-hour drive from Youngstown; it was a very exciting fight - one of the best of the year – as well as a come-from behind victory and a spectacular knockout; after a fast-paced opening round, Taylor staggered Kelly with a right hand midway through the 2nd, then scored a knockdown moments later that dropped Kelly to his hands and knees – clearly dazed, Kelly got up, but Taylor staggered him with a series of punches that sent him stumbling across the ring; Kelly showed tremendous heart and conditioning to survive the round, then rallied and outworked Taylor in the 3rd round; the following rounds were close – Kelly pressed forward, but Taylor moved and boxed effectively and built a lead on the scorecards; both landed hard right hands midway through the 6th, but

Kelly closed the show in the 7th round – he staggered Taylor with a right hand that backed him into the ropes, then scored a devastating knockdown with a series of punches that included crushing left and right uppercuts, and the referee jumped in to stop the fight without a count at 2:14 as Taylor slumped to the canvas; after six rounds, Taylor led by scores of 59-54, 58-55, 58-55; after the fight, Kelly said, “Now, I’m up there with all the great Ohio champions. We’re a small city. We’re a town of only 92,000 people, but those types of world champions out there – it’s an honor to be out there with these guys. Being in there with Jermain, the kid can punch like a mule. He caught me with a good one, I was really hurt bad. I felt like the leaning tower, it took me so long to go down. My legs just went out. I heard the count, then when I got up I still had a tingly feeling in my legs. The fans definitely helped me out - I could hear them yelling, ‘Kelly! Kelly!’ When I got back up he hit me with some more hard shots, but I got through. I was really shaky, I just did what I could to survive the round. I knew if I could survive that round, I’d have the fight. He can take a hell of a punch. Eventually I think it just caught up to him. It was a straight right hand. It was finding its mark all night. One thing I do have is the finishing touch. Those were real shots. If he could’ve gotten up, he would have. I tip my hat to him - he came to fight. He’s a hell of a fighter. It was heart, and it was the fans. The fans had a lot to do with it. I’m out of words. It’s huge. Are we going to Disneyland now?” ...

WBC M WORLD TITLE ELIMINATOR - on 5-19-07 in Memphis, TN, he TKO’d Edison Miranda (28-1): the bout was co-featured with the Jermain Taylor-Cory Spinks main event at the FedEx Forum, and it stole the show; it was a fast-paced, exciting fight from the opening bell, and very close through five rounds; Kelly started fast - he constantly pressed forward, backed up Miranda, and rocked him with several right hands in the 1st round; Miranda gave a very strong effort, as well – he bloodied Kelly’s nose in the 2nd round and swept the round on all three scorecards; Kelly scored with hard body punches, rocked Miranda repeatedly with right hands, and swept the 3rd and 4th rounds on all three scorecards; Miranda was warned for low blows in the 3rd, 4th, and 5th rounds, but rallied in the 5th - he rocked Kelly with a number of right hands late in the round, swept the round on the scorecards, and after five rounds, the judges scored 48-47, 48-47 Pavlik, 48-47 Miranda; but Kelly overpowered him in the 6th – he staggered Miranda midway through the round with two right hands, then scored a knockdown with another right hand moments later that dropped Miranda flat on his side - he was very unsteady when he got up and spit out his mouthpiece to gain a few extra seconds to recover, for which he was penalized one point; Kelly scored another knockdown with two left hooks moments later that put Miranda on the seat of his pants – he got up again, and the bell ended the round seconds later; all three judges scored the round 10-7 Pavlik; Kelly staggered Miranda with a series of hard punches in the 7th – Miranda sagged and was held up by the ropes, and the referee stopped the fight without a count at 1:54; after six rounds, Kelly led by scores of 58-54, 58-54, 57-55; after the fight, Kelly said, “We stuck with the game plan that we had, and like I said before, the media created Miranda into what he was. A great fighter, obviously, he can punch like a mule, but our game plan was to keep him going backwards, ‘cause he can’t fight that well going back. We didn’t want him to set the pace or set the tempo with them big right hands, and I think towards the end of the fight we started wearing him down and he didn’t have much left in him at all. He hit me with a couple of clean punches in the first round, and I think what really surprised him was that I took them so well. A lot of these guys feel my power, it don’t look like much on TV, but once they get in there, it’s like, ‘Whoa, this guy is strong!’ I think he felt it from the first round on, also. I think when he seen he couldn’t hurt me and he felt my power, that he was really worried. He spit the mouthpiece out, of course, I wanted the referee to stop the fight right there, the quicker the better. But he did a good job, he did what he was supposed to do when Miranda went down. Everybody wants to fight the world champion. Jermain Taylor is the world champion, he has the belt, he has the name, and of course I want to fight him.” ...

2ND NABF M TITLE DEFENSE, WBC M WORLD TITLE ELIMINATOR - on 1-27-07 in Anaheim, CA, he TKO’d Jose Luis Zertuche (19-3-2): it was a fast-paced, exciting fight and a spectacular knockout; Zertuche, a 2000 Mexican Olympian, gave a strong effort and scored effectively in the 2nd and 3rd rounds, but Kelly rallied after that and steadily wore him down; he rocked Zertuche with two left hooks in the 5th round, then scored a knockdown with a right hand that put Zertuche flat on his back late in the 6th; Kelly scored another knockdown in the 8th round – he landed a right hand that froze Zertuche in his tracks, then landed another one that dropped him face-first to the canvas – and the referee jumped in to stop the fight without a count, falling to the canvas with Zertuche, at 1:40; after the fight, Kelly said, “We wanted to box a little more, but the first round, I felt like I was in a little bit of quicksand. Every time I tried to move and get my rhythm going, I just couldn’t do it and I was getting caught with stupid punches. By the third or fourth round, I started finding my rhythm a little bit, my balance was a little more fluid and I was able to sit there and counter his mistakes and take my time little bit more. I’m a humble fighter, and he hit me with some good punches. Take nothing away from him, the kid’s a hell of a fighter. He came to fight tonight, but I was just a better man at the end. You seen the changes I made and how I adapted. You adapt to the fight, and I think I did a good job of that tonight. Anybody that’s in the way of me getting to the world title, I’ll go and fight. I’m there for it.”...

2006 - on 11-2-06 in Youngstown, OH, he TKO’d Lenord Pierre (18-2): Kelly headlined in his hometown at the Chevrolet Centre, drew an announced crowd of 4,416, and dominated the fight; Kelly scored a knockdown with a right hand late in the 1st round, and rocked Pierre repeatedly in the 2nd and 3rd; Kelly scored another knockdown with a left hook in the 4th round, and the referee stopped the fight without a count at 0:46; after the fight, Kelly said, “I’ve never hit a guy so hard that didn’t go down.”; after the fight, Dan Rafael of ESPN.com wrote, “Pavlik is a tremendous puncher... He is one of the sport’s bright, young potential stars...”; Boxing News reported, “Pavlik seemingly has the skills and power to dethrone the world champ.”...

1ST NABF M TITLE DEFENSE – on 7-27-06 in Uncasville, CT, he TKO’d former WBO jr. middleweight world champion Bronco McKart (48-6): Kelly had the edge in the early rounds, but McKart scored a knockdown when both of Kelly’s gloves touched the canvas in the 4th - replays showed that Kelly fell forward, off-balance, after a glancing blow to his shoulder; Kelly rallied and rocked McKart in the 5th round, then scored a knockdown with a series of punches and cut McKart over his right eye in the 6th; Kelly scored another knockdown with another series of punches later in the round - McKart got up but was unsteady, but the referee stopped the fight at 2:45; after the fight, Kelly said, “I think I ruined his whole game-plan. When he felt my power in the first round, I threw him off his plan. I figured, ‘Eventually you’re going to get tired and not me,’ and that’s what happened. We always train to keep the pace. In the fifth round, my trainers noticed he was keeping his elbow up. I just touched him under the elbow and snuck in another shot. I’ve been doing this for six years, and this was a convincing win. The way I won, it has to open doors, but all I can do is pray to the boxing gods.”...

2005 - WON VACANT NABF M TITLE - on 10-7-05 in Las Vegas, NV, he TKO’d Fulgencio Zuniga (17-1-1): it was a fast-paced, exciting fight; Zuniga scored a knockdown with a left hook in the 1st round, but Kelly recovered, dominated most of the rest of the fight, and steadily wore him down; Zuniga was cut over his right eye by a clash of heads, and his corner stopped the fight after the 9th round; after nine rounds, Kelly led by scores of 88-83, 87-83, 87-83; after the fight, he said, “I got it under my belt. He’s a pretty strong guy. I know I should have fought from the outside, but you can’t always do it. He had sneaky quickness.”...

On 8-26-05 in Houston, TX, he TKO’d Vincent Harris (12-17-2): at 2:19 of the 2nd round...

On 6-10-05 in Chicago, IL, he TKO’d Daniel Neal (9-8-1): at 1:49 of the 1st round...

On 3-4-05 in Choctaw, MS, he TKO’d Dorian Beaupierre (12-2-2): Kelly dominated the fight - he scored a knockdown with a right hand midway through the 1st round, and staggered Beaupierre again just before the bell; Kelly scored another knockdown with a right hand in the 2nd round - Beaupierre got up, but Kelly staggered him with a series of punches and the referee stopped the fight at 2:35...

2004 - on 11-27-04 in Las Vegas he won an 8 round unanimous decision against Ross Thompson (26-9-2): the fight was on the undercard of the Erik Morales-Marco Antonio Barrera III main event, and Kelly dominated; he consistently outworked Thompson and landed the harder punches, and won by scores of 80-72, 80-72, 79-73...

On 9-18-04 in Las Vegas he knocked out Carlton Holland (16-9-1): the fight was on the undercard of the Bernard Hopkins-Oscar De La Hoya main event, and Kelly gave a very strong performance; he scored one knockdown in the 1st round and two more in the 2nd, and Holland was counted out at 2:59...

On 7-2-04 in Struthers, OH, he TKO'd Pedro Ortega (30-13-1): Kelly wore down Ortega with body punches, rocked him several times, and Ortega did not continue after the 6th round; after the fight, Kelly said, "This guy was very smart, as he knew to stay away from my power. But because of the body shots, especially to his ribs, I knew it was only a matter of time before he went."...

On 3-26-04 in Phoenix, AZ, he TKO'd Roberto Baro (11-3): Kelly scored two knockdowns with body punches in the 2nd round, and Baro was counted out at 2:50...

On 1-23-04 in Kansas City, MO, he won an 8 round unanimous decision against Anthony Ivory (28-66-4)...

2003 - on 7-1-03 in Niles, OH, he TKO'd Rico Cason (16-7): Kelly entered the fight with a sore right hand, but scored two knockdowns in the 2nd round - the first with a right hand, and the second with a left hook to the body - and the referee stopped the fight at 2:02; after the fight, Kelly said, "It's a dream come true to fight on national television in front of a home crowd. I was very happy with the crowd tonight. On the first knockdown, I knew he was hurt on an earlier shot. I stepped back and nailed him with a right cross. My left has become much stronger because lately I have been favoring it because of the injury to my right. Anytime you can have a guy out early it is beneficial, because the longer an opponent lasts, the better the chance he has of beating you."...

On 3-22-03 in Las Vegas he TKO'd Cesar Avila (8-3-1): at 2:00 of the 6th round...

On 2-8-03 in Las Vegas he TKO'd Eduardo Gutierrez (31-12-2): Kelly scored one knockdown in the 1st round and another in the 2nd, and stopped Gutierrez at 2:59 of the 2nd round...

On 7-30-02 in Concho, OK, he knocked out Abel Hernandez (5-3-1): Kelly scored three knockdowns in the 1st round, and the referee stopped the fight at 2:54...

On 6-21-02 in Las Vegas he knocked out Eric Olds (4-2): Kelly scored a knockdown in the 1st round, and Olds was counted out at 2:45...

On 2-23-02 in Las Vegas he knocked out Robert Dasoyan (12-6-4): Kelly scored a knockdown in the 2nd round, and Dasoyan was counted out at 2:15...

2001 - on 11-21-01 in Youngstown, OH, he knocked out veteran Rob Bleakley (77-40-1): it was Kelly's first fight as a pro in his hometown, and an enthusiastic crowd of 2,000 was on hand; Kelly scored one knockdown late in the 1st round and another one in the 2nd - Bleakley beat the count, but the referee stopped the fight at 1:56; after the fight, Kelly said, "When I dropped him in the second, I knew it was just a matter of time. Jack told me to still be careful. After that, I was just trying to time my punches and pick my spots. It's great. I'd rather fight here than anywhere else. If they ask me would I rather fight here or in Las Vegas, I'd come back here anytime."...

On 8-4-01 in Las Vegas he TKO'd Mario Lopez (3-1-1): Kelly scored one knockdown in the 1st round and another one in the 2nd, and Lopez's corner stopped the fight at 1:42...

On 6-8-01 in Baraboo, WI, he TKO'd Grady Brewer (7-1): Kelly scored one knockdown in the 1st round and two more in the 2nd, and the referee stopped the fight at 2:48...

AMATEUR, PERSONAL BACKGROUND: Kelly said, "I was born and raised in Youngstown. I have two older brothers. They used to box as amateurs, but they don't box now. My oldest brother is the head tech at the kidney center, and my brother Ricky was in the Navy. He's been out for a couple of years. My dad sells insurance for AIG. He also works a side job at Mr. Anthony's. My mom, she works at Vic & Syl's, it's a restaurant.

"At the time, I wanted to take up martial arts a lot. I played all the other sports, football, baseball, and I just liked contact. When I was nine, I went down to Southside Boxing Club, where I train now, and Harry Arroyo was in there. [note: former IBF lightweight world champion] I didn't even know it was him until I left. My mom told me. I just kind of fell in love with the sport after that. He was a great guy, funny as can be. The first time I got to go in and spar and actually hit somebody, where in martial arts, you didn't do none of that. I got hit and hit people back, it was fun. My amateur record was 89-9.

"I had a lot of hand speed and I was outboxing people then. When I hit 17, the power seemed to really come all of a sudden, and I had more snap to the punches and I was getting more and more stoppages. But I learned those basic boxing skills. I don't have to go in there and slug and rely solely on power. I can box, too."...

In addition to Arroyo, Youngstown is also the hometown of former WBA lightweight world champion Ray "Boom Boom" Mancini; Kelly said, "Their careers are an inspiration to me to win a world title and defend it a couple of times. I talked to Boom Boom a lot earlier in my career, and Harry Arroyo I talk to a lot."...

Kelly graduated from Youngstown's Lowellville High School; he studied computer graphics at Mahoning County Joint Vocational School, and graduated in 2000...

He married his longtime girlfriend, Samantha, in a private ceremony in Hawaii in July, 2008; they have two young children – daughter Sydney, born May 11, 2006, and son Kelly Robert Jr., born February 25, 2009...

BRIAN VERA (17-5, 11 KOs)...

- Former Texas state middleweight champion...

At the age of 28, Brian is a six-year pro. A veteran at 160 pounds – who fought at super middleweight in 2006 and 2007 - he was a participant in the third season of “The Contender.”

Brian has been a “road warrior” in the last couple of years, matched against local favorites or “house” fighters on their home turf, sometimes on short notice without proper time to prepare.

He is 2-4 in his last six fights, but those two wins were both impressive TKO upsets.

On June 11, he scored a third-round TKO against contender Sebastien Demers in Demers’ hometown of Montreal.

After the fight, Dan Rafael wrote on ESPN.com [excerpts]: Vera took the “Friday Night Fights” co-feature on short notice after the original opponent...wound up not finalizing the bout with Demers. Vera made the most of his unexpected opportunity and pulled the upset over Demers, of Quebec, who was the clear hometown favorite. Vera...knows something about upsets. In March 2008, he stopped heralded prospect Andy Lee in the seventh round in a major shocker. Here he was at it again, saying before the fight that it was a do or die situation against Demers....

Vera-Demers was an entertaining and competitive fight through the first two rounds. Then it all changed in the third when Vera unloaded a clean left-right combination that dropped Demers in the center of the ring. Still unsteady after the knockdown, Vera floored him again with a pair of powerful right hands. Demers, who was now badly cut on his nose, continued but had very little left except his heart. He stayed on his feet while taking a shellacking until [the] referee finally stepped in at 1 minute, 57 seconds. [End Rafael item]

He scored another of his career-best wins in March, 2008 – a seventh-round TKO against previously undefeated middleweight prospect and 2004 Irish Olympian Andy Lee.

Brian said, “I get in there and lose my head a little bit and want to brawl, but we’ve been working on boxing. I don’t get hit as much, that’s for sure. I like that. The last fight, the first five rounds I did real well boxing, not getting hit or anything.

“Just look for a different style, a different fighter to come out. We’re planning on looking good and winning.”

Fight by Fight – 2010 - in his last fight on 9-4-10 in Dnipropetrovsk, UKR, he lost a 12 round unanimous decision against local favorite Maksym Bursak (20-0-1): the fight headlined at Sportpalace Meteor, and it was fast-paced and exciting; both fought aggressively and the early rounds were close - Bursak outworked Brian in the 1st and 2nd rounds, but Brian rallied and rocked Bursak several times in the 3rd and 4th; Bursak boxed and moved in the second half of the fight and dominated most of the middle and late rounds; scored 118-111, 117-111, 119-110...

On 6-11-10 in Montreal, QUE, he TKO’d hometown favorite Sebastien Demers (31-2): the fight was co-featured with the David Lemieux-Elvin Ayala main event, and Demers was the clear favorite to win; the 1st and 2nd rounds were close, but Brian scored two knockdowns – the first with a left hook-right hand combination, the second with two right hands - and cut Demers on his nose in the 3rd – Demers got up both times, but Brian rocked him with a series of punches and the referee stopped the fight at 1:57...

On 2-26-10 in Verona, NY, he lost a 10 round majority decision against Isaac Rodriguez (16-0): the fight headlined at the Turning Stone Casino; Brian started fast – he pressed forward, landed the harder punches in the early rounds, and appeared to build a lead; but Rodriguez rallied in the middle rounds – he staggered Brian with a right hand in the 5th round, then bloodied his mouth late in the 6th; Brian's nose was also bloodied, and Rodriguez was cut over his left eye in the following rounds; the late rounds were close – both fighters stood and traded hard punches; scored 97-93, 96-94, 95-95...

2009 – on 5-8-09 in Ft. Worth, TX, he lost a 10 round unanimous decision against lefthanded Scottish prospect Craig McEwan (14-0): the fight headlined at Sundance Square; Brian pressed forward, but McEwan kept him off-balance with movement and consistently outboxed and outworked him; Brian rocked McEwan with a right hand in the 7th round, but was cut over his left eye; McEwan controlled the late rounds and won by scores of 97-93 on all three scorecards...

2008 - on 11-22-08 he was TKO'd against lefthanded prospect James Kirkland (23-0): the fight was co-featured with the Ricky Hatton-Paulie Malignaggi main event, and Kirkland dominated; Brian was the naturally bigger man, but Kirkland consistently outworked him, landed the harder punches to the body and head, and rocked him repeatedly; Kirkland scored two knockdowns in the 2nd round – the first with a left hand that dropped Brian to the seat of his trunks, the second with a right hook that spun him around, facing the ropes, on his knees – and Brian was cut over his right ear in the round; Brian had a few small rallies – he rocked Kirkland with a right hand late in the 4th round, and landed a few good right hands in the 5th and 6th rounds, as well – but they weren't enough to take the momentum; Kirkland scored another knockdown with a right hook in the 8th – Brian got up, but James rocked him again and the referee stopped the fight at 1:45...

On 3-21-08 he TKO'd previously undefeated 2004 Irish Olympian and lefthanded prospect Andy Lee (15-0): the fight headlined at Mohegan Sun, and Lee was the clear favorite to win; he scored a knockdown with a left hand in the 1st round and dominated the early rounds – he consistently outworked Brian and rocked him repeatedly with left hands; Brian had his moments – he rocked Lee with a right hand in the 2nd round and cut him badly over his right eye in the 4th round, then rallied and landed several hard right hands late in the 5th round; the 6th round was fast-paced and competitive and had the fans on their feet – at the end of the round, Brian's mouth was bloodied and Lee looked completely exhausted; Brian came on strongly in the 7th round – he staggered Lee four or five times with series of punches, Lee was battered and bloody around his eyes and clinched several times to survive; Brian rocked Lee with another right hand later in the round, and the referee stopped the fight at 2:17...

2007 - on 11-6-07 in Boston, MA, he won a 6 round unanimous decision against lefthanded Max Alexander (14-1-1): Brian pressed forward, consistently outworked Alexander, and dominated the fight; Alexander was cut over his left eye by a clash of heads in the 5th round; scored 60-54, 60-54, 58-56...

On 8-9-07 in Los Angeles, CA, he was knocked out against Jaidon Codrington (16-1): Codrington scored two knockdowns in the 2nd round, and Brian was counted out at 1:32; after the fight, Brian said, "I didn't think I was in deep trouble at the time, but I didn't know how to react and I should have been grabbing or moving. I got away from my jab. I was on the ropes and the ref felt like I was taking too many shots. I thought I could have gotten out of it, but I have to respect what the ref does."...

On 6-15-07 in Youngstown, OH, he won a 10 round unanimous decision against Darnell Boone (14-9-2): Brian generally outworked Boone and landed the harder punches; he was penalized one point for holding behind the head in the 9th round, but won by scores of 97-92, 97-92, 95-94...

On 5-11-07 in Miami, OK, he won a 10 round majority decision against Samuel Miller (17-1): it was a controversial decision; Brian pressed forward, but Miller boxed and moved effectively and consistently scored with counterpunches; most observers thought Miller deserved to win, but the judges scored 96-94, 96-94, 95-95...

2006 – on 11-4-06 in Kinder, LA, he TKO'd Etienne Whitaker (32-23-2): Brian staggered Whitaker with a right hand in the 1st round; he scored two knockdowns in the 3rd round, and the referee stopped the fight at 1:58...

On 8-18-06 in Dallas, TX, he knocked out Antonio Garcia (19-23-1): the fight was on the undercard of the Evander Holyfield-Jeremy Bates main event at American Airlines Arena; Brian stopped Garcia at 1:32 of the 3rd round...

WON VACANT TEXAS STATE M TITLE - on 6-9-06 in Ft. Worth, TX, he TKO'd Marcus Hicks (5-3-1): it was the fight of the night; both fought aggressively, and both were rocked a number of times; Hicks staggered Brian in the 4th round and scored a standing-8 count, and both fighters' noses were bloodied; but Brian rallied and scored a knockdown in the 5th round, and the referee stopped the fight at 2:05...

On 2-16-06 in Ft. Worth he won an 8 round unanimous decision against Antonio Garcia (10-20-1): it was a close fight; Brian started fast and built a lead, but Garcia rallied in the late rounds; scored 80-72, 78-74, 77-75...

2005 - on 12-16-05 in Austin, TX, he knocked out Jeremiah Chapman (2-4): Brian scored two knockdowns in the 1st round; he scored another in the 2nd, and Chapman was counted out at 0:40...

On 11-26-05 in Austin he knocked out Cardyl Finley (6-15-1): at 2:47 of the 1st round...

On 7-22-05 in Las Vegas, NV, he TKO'd Freeman Taft (3-2-2): Brian staggered Taft with a series of punches in the 2nd round, and the referee stopped the fight at 2:05...

On 6-16-05 in Ft. Worth he TKO'd Trenice Brown (2-1): at 2:36 of the 3rd round...

On 3-17-05 in Ft. Worth he won a 4 round unanimous decision against Javier Diaz (1-0): Brian pressed forward, consistently outworked Diaz, and dominated most of the fight; scored 40-38, 39-37, 39-37...

On 2-26-05 in Hidalgo, TX, he TKO'd Juan Ruiz (2-2): Brian rocked Ruiz several times, and the referee stopped the fight at 1:10 of the 2nd round...

2004 - on 9-30-04 in Austin he TKO'd Burt Montez (debut): at 2:32 of the 2nd round...

He debuted at the age of 22 on 8-27-04 in Ft. Worth and won a 4 round unanimous decision against Avien Cooper (2-7-1): scored 40-36 on all three scorecards...

AMATEUR, PERSONAL BACKGROUND: Brian said, "I was born in Lubbock, Texas. I got a little brother who's also a professional boxer. His name is Gilbert Vera. I got a older brother that lives here in Austin, and I got a half-brother, Leonard Garcia, he's a Ultimate Fighter. I got a half-sister that lives in Ft. Worth.

"My mom works for the court here in Austin. My dad was a professional boxer, also. He was heavyweight back in like, '85? He stopped at 10-1 or 10-2, something like that. His name is Gilbert Vera.

"My dad took me to the gym probably when I was about four years old and I stayed in the gym until I was about eight or nine. Then I moved to Austin when my parents got divorced. I played other sports, the football and the baseball, and kind of did the boxing on the side. I played baseball at Temple Junior College.

"I started taking boxing serious again and fighting amateur when I turned 19. I had about 50 amateur fights. I had four losses. I lost in the Nationals to Jaidon Codrington."...

At the age of 30, Guillermo is a one-year pro. A sensational prospect at 122 pounds, he is a former international amateur standout - he was a two-time gold medalist at the Olympics, World Championships, and Pan American Games, and won many other prestigious amateur championships, as well.

He is coming off a sixth-round TKO win against Jose Angel Beranza in his last fight on August 21.

After the fight, Dan Rafael wrote on ESPN.com [excerpts]: If you've never heard of Rigondeaux, you're either not a boxing fan or you've been hiding under a rock somewhere. The 29-year-old Cuban defector is perhaps the greatest amateur in history. His two-time Olympic gold medals are only part of his legendary amateur career that included two World Amateur Championships gold medals, a Pan-American Games gold medal, seven Cuban national titles and nearly 400 fights. Finally, after a failed defection attempt in 2007 with teammate (and now fellow pro prospect) Erislandy Lara, Rigondeaux defected in February 2009 and now makes his home in Miami. He turned pro in May 2009, but his pro progress stalled due to all kinds of issues over his management and promotional contracts. However, a couple of months ago, the issues were resolved and Top Rank came on board as his promoter.

This was Rigondeaux's first fight under the new deal, as well as his first fight with trainer Ronnie Shields, with whom he trained in Houston alongside one of Shield's other blue chippers, Lara. In the opening bout on "Top Rank Live," Rigondeaux thrashed Beranza.... He counterpunched at will, slipped most of the return fire and dropped Beranza twice in the fourth round because Beranza never saw his incredibly fast hands coming. Rigondeaux punished him throughout the fight until he retired on his stool 10 seconds into the seventh round. Rigondeaux is on the ultra fast track. With all that amateur experience and accomplishment, not to mention his age, there is nothing holding him back from moving very fast. [End Rafael item]

Guillermo is considered by many observers to be one of the greatest amateur boxers of all-time. There have been others with more accomplishments, but they all had significantly longer amateur careers – Guillermo, a two-time Olympic gold medalist, boxed as an amateur only until the age of 26.

Three boxers have won three Olympic gold medals. The first was Laszlo Papp of Hungary, who passed away in 2003 – he boxed as an amateur until the age of 30 and won Olympic gold medals at middleweight in 1948 and at light heavyweight in 1952 and 1956. Cuban super heavyweight Teofilo Stevenson, who fought exclusively as an amateur until he retired in 1986 at the age of 34, was the super heavyweight gold medalist at the 1972, 1976, and 1980 Olympics; the 1974, 1978, and 1986 World Championships; and the 1975 and 1979 Pan American Games. Cuban heavyweight Felix Savon, who fought exclusively as an amateur until he retired in 2000 at the age of 33, was the heavyweight gold medalist at the 1992, 1996, and 2000 Olympics; the 1986, 1989, 1991, 1993, 1995, and 1997 World Championships; and the 1987, 1991, and 1995 Pan American Games.

Guillermo said through an interpreter, “There’s a big difference training here than in Cuba. There’s more sparring and you’re going deeper rounds. You’re training for a longer race, so you have to work harder.”

Regarding his nickname, he said, “There’s a guy named Don Francisco here, who is on Sabado Gigante, and there’s a guy named ‘El Chacal,’ and Chacal just eliminates guys. They do like, singing contests on the show and he comes out and gets rid of people. They started calling me that when I got here in the United States.”

Fight by Fight – 2010 - in his last fight on 8-21-10 in Tijuana, MX, he TKO’d Jose Angel Beranza (33-18-2): the fight was co-featured with the Joksan Hernandez-Ira Terry main event, and Guillermo dominated; he consistently outboxed and outworked Beranza, and scored two knockdowns in the 4th round; Guillermo rocked Beranza several more times in the 5th and 6th rounds, and Beranza did not continue after the 6th round...

On 2-5-10 in Ft. Lauderdale, FL, he knocked out Adolfo Landeros (20-12-1): the fight was on the undercard of the Ed Paredes-Joey Hernandez main event; Guillermo scored a knockdown with a left hand to the body in the 1st round, and Landeros was counted out at 0:28...

2009 - on 12-16-09 in New York, NY, he won an 8 round unanimous decision against Lante Addy (6-4-1): the fight headlined at B.B King’s Blues Club, and Guillermo dominated; he scored a knockdown with a left hand in the 1st round, and Addy fought very cautiously after that; Guillermo consistently outworked him, landed the harder punches, and won by scores of 80-71, 80-71, 79-72; after the fight, Guillermo said, “The bout was not difficult for me. It’s just hard to knock someone out when they refuse to engage.”...

On 9-18-09 in Miami, FL, he TKO’d 39 year-old Giovani Andrade (51-11): the fight headlined at the Fountainbleau, and Guillermo dominated; he scored a knockdown with a right hook that dropped Andrade to one knee in the 2nd round; he scored another knockdown with a left hand to the body that dropped Andrade to one knee in the 3rd round – he got up but was unsteady, and the referee stopped the fight at 2:53...

On 7-17-09 in Las Vegas, NV, he TKO’d Robert Guillen (4-2-2): the fight was on the undercard of the Miguel Vazquez-Breidis Prescott main event; Guillermo scored a knockdown with a left hand to the body in the 1st round, and Guillen was counted out at 2:57...

He debuted at the age of 28 on 5-22-09 in Miami Beach, FL, and TKO’d Juan Noriega (3-2): Guillermo dominated the fight; he scored a knockdown with a left hand early in the 1st round; he rocked Noriega repeatedly in the 2nd and 3rd rounds, and the referee stopped the fight at 1:09 of the 3rd; after the fight, Guillermo said, “It was a quick fight. I came and did what I had to do. I’ve fought so many times as an amateur that I feel like I’m a professional already. I’ve always had the pro style. In a few fights, I’ll be ready for a title shot. I came here to be a world champion and I don’t have a doubt in my mind I will be a world champion. Let’s see if I’m as good as everybody says I am.”...

AMATEUR, PERSONAL BACKGROUND: Guillermo said, “ I was born in La Prueba, a little town in Santiago de Cuba, Cuba. I have three brothers and three sisters. My parents are farm workers. I lived my whole life on a farm. We grew coffee.

"I started boxing when I was 13. I'm the only boxer in my family. I thought I could fight and I wanted to do it, so I got involved. I went to the gym on my own one day. I'm naturally lefthanded.

"I lived in the Cuban national training camp for nine years. I moved there when I was 17. [note: the Cuban training camp for the national boxing team, located in Havana, is called "La Finca" – literally – "The Farm"]

"I'm married. My wife's name is Farah Colina Rigondeaux. We have a son, Guillermo Rigondeaux Junior, who's seven year old and I also have a stepson, Julio Cesar Rigondeaux, who is 16. I raised him since he was four years old."...

Guillermo said that he had 246 amateur fights, with a record of 243-3...

His family is still in Cuba...

From the Associated Press, Feb. 24, 2009 [excerpts]: Former Olympic boxing champion Guillermo Rigondeaux defected to the United States, 18 months after he was kicked off the Cuba team as punishment for a previous defection attempt.

Farah Colina said Tuesday her husband had no choice but to flee Cuba if he wanted to box again.

"I'm surprised on one level because he left home at the end of January saying he was going to Santiago," Colina said, referring to the eastern city that is Cuba's second largest. "But, on another level, I think he was obligated to do this."

Colina said her husband called a neighbor Saturday to say he made it to Miami. The family does not have a phone. She declined to describe his journey to the U.S., but said he sounded happy and nervous on the phone.

She spoke from her home in Havana's Boyeros district that she shared with Rigondeaux, the couple's 7-year-old son and her 17-year-old boy whom the boxer raised as his stepson.

Rigondeaux hoped to try for a third Olympic title at last summer's Beijing Games. But in July 2007 he and 2005 welterweight world champion Erislandy Lara disappeared during the Pan American Games in Rio de Janeiro. Both were accused of overstaying their visas, arrested and sent back to the island.

Rigondeaux and Lara insisted they never intended to defect, but a German promoter said they signed pro contracts. Fidel Castro wrote in an essay after their return to Cuba that the pair had "reached the point of no return" with the national boxing team. Lara defected to the U.S. last year.

In an interview with The Associated Press in August, Rigondeaux insisted he deserved a second chance to box for Cuba. His wife said that after her husband returned to Cuba, Rigondeaux trained for months but became increasingly depressed.

"He always thought they would give him another chance," Colina said. "Those were very hard moments and nobody came to even offer him a job." [End AP item]

MIKE "MJ" JONES

MIKE "MJ" JONES (22-0, 18 KOs)...

- Ranked WBA #2, WBO #3, WBC #4, IBF #4 at 147 pounds...
- NABA welterweight champion, six successful title defenses...
- NABO welterweight champion, one successful defense

At the age of 27, Mike is a four-year pro. A contender at 147 pounds, he has stayed active in the ring, stepped up in class of opposition in recent fights, and made good progress.

He is coming off a fifth-round knockout win against Irving Garcia in his last fight on July 9.

After the fight, Dan Rafael wrote on ESPN.com [excerpts]: Philadelphia's Jones is right on the cusp of a major fight, so getting through a step-up fight against Puerto Rico's Garcia and looking good was pivotal. Jones, who learned to box in the gym of legendary heavyweight champ Joe Frazier, accomplished both tasks, taking Garcia out and setting himself up for potentially big business. With the crowd at Boardwalk Hall's ballroom firmly behind him, Jones started a little bit slowly. Garcia showed a nice jab in the first round, but Jones became much more aggressive in the second round and stayed that way. It was a good, hard-hitting fight, but Jones' power and speed eventually were too much for Garcia. Although Garcia raised a welt under Jones' right eye in the third round, it did not hamper his attack. In the fifth round, Jones unloaded a massive flurry with both hands. He fired more than a dozen blows and had Garcia in major trouble. The last shot of Jones' attack, a left hand, strayed well south of the border - clearly not a purposeful low blow - and Garcia went down to all fours. [The] referee blew the call and ruled it a knockdown before counting Garcia out. Garcia was in very bad shape before the punch and Jones seemingly was on his way to a clean knockout victory. Garcia...posed a legitimate test for Jones, who has a bright future. [End Rafael item]

Co-manager Jim Williams said, "Mike's a real modest guy. He's pretty quiet. He's not a trash-talker at all. He's a different type of guy. He's a real good dad. One of his kids comes to the gym with him most of the time because he can't get a babysitter, and the mother has the other one. He's a different type of guy. He's got a machine gun tattooed on his arm, and that is so unlike him. I don't know when he got that done. When I first met him, I said, 'Does that machine gun mean anything? Are you supposed to be a bad guy or something?' 'No, no. Not at all,' he says. You never hear him curse. He's just an unusual person."

Mike said, "I'm just a little smarter now than I was a couple of years ago. I've grown into the welterweight division physically, and experience-wise - each fight that I have, I get a little better. You've got to be smart in the ring, first and foremost.

"I guess I got my discipline from my dad. He's been working for a long time, putting food on the table and everything, and I'm just doing the same thing for my kids.

"I'm just anxious to get in there and do a good job, and put my stamp on the world. I'm hoping to get a title shot after one or two more fights.

"I'm pretty much a boxer. I'm not a slugger. Pretty much a smart boxer. Whatever I see that opens up, I attack. I'm naturally righthanded.

"My knockouts, I basically sum it up as accurate punching. It doesn't take a devastating puncher to get knockouts. You just got to be accurate with your shots.

"I pretty much had a pro style as a amateur. That's probably why I didn't do that well. I didn't throw that many punches.

"I'm going to be the greatest fighter you ever seen before in your life. Check me out."

Fight by Fight – 2010 – 6TH NABA, 1ST NABO W TITLE DEFENSE - in his last fight on 7-9-10 in Atlantic City, NJ, he knocked out Irving Garcia (17-4-3): the bout headlined at Boardwalk Hall; Garcia gave a good effort and had a few rallies, but Mike dominated most of the fight - he generally outworked, landed hard body punches, and steadily wore him down; Mike scored a knockdown with a series of punches in the 5th round, and Garcia was counted out at 1:22; after four rounds, Mike led by scores of 39-37, 39-37, 40-36; after the fight, Mike said, "I saw his legs start to buckle every time I hit him to the body, so I tried to capitalize on that. I stepped it up a little more each round, and I thought I did a good job of breaking him down."...

5TH NABA W TITLE DEFENSE, WON VACANT NABO W TITLE - on 4-17-10 in Atlantic City he TKO'd Hector Munoz (18-2-1): the fight was on the undercard of the Sergio Martinez-Kelly Pavlik main event, and Mike dominated; he outboxed and outworked Munoz and consistently landed the harder punches; he rocked Munoz in the 1st round and bloodied his mouth in the following rounds; Mike staggered him with a right hand in the 5th round, and the referee stopped the fight at 2:03; after the fight, Mike said, "He's a tough guy. I didn't want to exert myself at the beginning - I wanted to set a good pace because I was a little sluggish my last time out. I could tell he was wearing down, and I tried to counter and make my jab the offense. I wanted to keep the jab to the body. I'd just like to fight every month and half or two months. I'm ready to move."...

4TH NABA W TITLE DEFENSE - on 2-27-10 in Atlantic City he won a 10 round unanimous decision against Henry Bruseles (28-3-1): the bout headlined at Bally's and drew a capacity crowd; Mike consistently outboxed and outworked Bruseles and dominated most of the fight; scored 98-92, 98-92, 97-92...

AMATEUR, PERSONAL BACKGROUND: Mike said, "I was born and raised in Philadelphia. I got one older sister. My mom works at a cleaning business and my dad is a C.O., a correctional officer.

"I was about 14 years old when I started boxing. I always liked the sports. I liked to play basketball, football, physical sports, and I wanted to do something more physical. I decided to check out boxing.

"I had about 70 amateur fights. I was about 60-10. I won a few titles, the Golden Gloves. Not the Nationals, but I won the Mid-Atlantic three times and the regional championships three times.

"I have two daughters. Myana is six, and Alyza is four. They both live with their mom, but I have them a lot." ...

Until recently, Mike worked at Home Depot...co-manager Jim Williams said, "Mike doesn't work there anymore. He used to work fulltime, but they were very good with him. They used to let him take time-off, no questions asked. But he's made a couple of bucks fighting, and he's at the point now where it's going to cost him to work over there because he's got to get a babysitter. He has a big following at Home Depot. Last time, I think about 20 of them came to see him fight.

"Mike's a serious guy. He's low-key. He never had anything when he was younger. We signed a contract extension with him about six, eight months ago, and at the same time, signed the papers for his house. Doc Nowicki had a house in the Frankfurt section of Philly, a nice section of town. Originally, we had a few of the Georgians living in there – Koba Gogoladze, Ramazan Paliani, and all [note: boxers from the Republic of Georgia that were co-managed by Jim and Doc]. When they were done, Mike moved in there. He's been there for couple of years now. It's a decent house - semi-detached, a nice backyard, new wall-to-wall carpeting. He always wanted a house of his own, for his kids. So Doc sold it to him on a lease-purchase - he pays Doc so much of his fights till he pays him back. When we left the lawyer's office after signing the papers that day, Mike was all smiles. I said, "Man, that's the first time I saw you smile.' And he said, 'It's the first time I've been happy.' Mike's a proud homeowner now. He just wants roots - his world revolves around his daughters. We had a barbeque for him after his last fight, and he showed up late. He said he had to get his daughters' hair done. That came first, before anything else." ...

JESUS “Renuente” (Determined) SOTO-KARASS (24-4-3, 1 ND, 16 KOs)...

- Ranked WBC #8, IBF #13 at 147 pounds...
- Former NABF welterweight champion...
- Former WBC Continental Americas welterweight champion, four successful defenses...

At the age of 28, Jesus is a nine-year pro. A contender at 147 pounds, he has stepped up in class of opposition in several recent fights and given impressive performances.

His last two fights, however, have been inconclusive – both were shortened by cuts caused by accidental head clashes.

He is coming off a no decision against Gabriel Martinez in his last fight on May 29.

After the fight, Dan Rafael wrote on ESPN.com [excerpts]: This bout went down as a no-contest as Soto-Karass leaned far inside while throwing a punch and he and Martinez had a nasty accidental clash of heads. It left Martinez with a gaping cut under his left eye. They finished the round and then the bout was stopped. Too bad, because it was shaping up as entertaining fight. [End Rafael item]

In his previous fight in November, 2009, he had an injury-shortened technical decision loss against Alfonso Gomez.

Jesus was undefeated in his previous 15 fights - 13-0-2, with six knockouts – which included several impressive wins and established him as a welterweight contender.

After his 10 round unanimous decision win against Carson Jones in February, 2009, Boxing News reported [excerpts]: The Mexican mauler is as hot as he’s ever been in his eight-year career. Soto-Karass was once better known as Antonio Margarito’s sparring partner, but his own accomplishments can no longer be ignored. [End Boxing News item]

Jesus told Boxingscene.com, “I have a new team and Joe Goossen is now my head trainer. I think that he has made a huge difference in how I fight. I think after this fight I will be able to fight for a regional title, then a Top 10 fighter, and then hopefully a title shot.

“I have made mistakes in past fights that have held me back from getting a title shot, but I think I have learned from those mistakes and I am ready to take the next step in my career.”

Three of Jesus’ losses came in consecutive fights in 2004 and 2005. All three were against undefeated fighters, and all were by decision – Yuri Foreman (16-0), who currently holds the WBA super welterweight world title; Freddy Hernandez (16-0); and Nurhan Suleyman (12-0).

Jesus said through an interpreter, “I came from a boxing family – my father and all of my brothers were boxers. I had a lot of success early in my career without having to try very hard. A few of years ago, I realized I had to do something different. I knew I had to take this seriously and train harder.

“My goal is to become a world champion, make a lot of money, and buy a house for my mother and family. I’m going to give it 100 percent.”

Jesus’ nickname means “determined.” He said, “It’s like, if you knock me down, I’m going to get up and knock you down.”

Key Fights – 2010 - in his last fight on 5-29-10 in Chicago, IL, he had a no decision against Gabriel Martinez (24-1-1): the fight headlined at the UIC Pavilion; Martinez was cut badly under his left eye in the 1st round, and the fight was stopped on the cut after the round; the local commission records it as a no decision at 0:01 of the 2nd round...

2009 - on 11-14-09 in Las Vegas, NV, he lost a technical decision against Alfonso Gomez (20-4-2): the fight was on the undercard of the Manny Pacquiao-Miguel Cotto main event; Gomez generally outworked Jesus and built a lead on the scorecards; Jesus was also penalized one point for low blows in the 3rd round, and another point for the same foul in the 4th; Gomez was also cut by an accidental clash of heads in the 3rd round; Gomez generally outworked Jesus and landed the sharper punches in the following rounds; the cut worsened, and the fight was stopped on the injury at 2:14 of the 6th round and went to the scorecards – Gomez led by scores of 58-54, 57-55, 57-55...

On 8-29-09 in Grand Prairie, TX, he won a 10 round unanimous decision against Edvan Barros (10-6-1): the bout headlined at Quik Trip Park; Jesus pressed forward, kept a busier pace, and dominated most of the fight; Barros fought defensively in the early rounds, but stepped up his attack in the late rounds and there were some good exchanges; scored 99-91, 97-93, 100-90...

On 2-6-09 in Maywood, CA, he won a 10 round unanimous decision against Carson Jones (18-6-1): the bout headlined at the Activity Center; Jesus scored two knockdowns, both with left hooks to the body, in the 3rd round, but was penalized one point for punching Jones while he was on one knee after the second knockdown; Jones stepped up his pace and rallied in the middle rounds, but Jesus scored repeatedly with hard left hooks to the body, steadily wore him down, and finished strongly in the late rounds; scored 99-89, 98-90, 97-91; after the fight, Jesus said, "I knew that he was a strong fighter. He took my punches very well. I would have him at times and then he would slip away."...

2008 – on 11-28-08 in Rio Rancho, NM, he TKO'd six-foot tall Hicklet Lau (20-17-2): the fight headlined at the Santa Ana Star Center, and Jesus quickly overpowered Lau; he started very fast, and Lau was battered and bloody in the 1st round; Jesus scored a knockdown with a right hand in the 2nd – Lau got up, but Jesus rocked him with a series of punches and the referee stopped the fight at 1:59; after the fight, Jesus said, "I knew I had him when I hit him with my first punch. I felt him go weak when I hit him."...

WON VACANT NABF SW TITLE - on 7-25-08 in Las Vegas he TKO'd David Estrada (22-4): the fight headlined at the Hard Rock Casino, and it was fast-paced and exciting; several rounds were close, but Jesus had the edge in most of them and gradually wore down Estrada; Jesus buckled Estrada's knees - almost to the canvas - with a left hook in the 8th round, then scored a knockdown with two right hands that dropped him on his side – Estrada got up but was very unsteady, and the referee stopped the fight at 1:03; after seven rounds, Jesus led by scores of 69-64, 69-64, 67-66; after the fight, Jesus said, "It was a tough fight. He was a very difficult opponent. This was an important fight for me because it was against a world class fighter. My corner kept telling me to step it up, but I thought I was doing well. I thought I was comfortably ahead."...

4TH WBC CONTINENTAL AMERICAS W TITLE DEFENSE - on 4-11-08 in Atlantic City, NJ, he won a 10 round unanimous decision against Chris Smith (21-4-1): it was a tremendous battle, hard-fought and very close; Smith started fast – he constantly pressed forward and outworked Jesus in the early rounds; Jesus's right eye became badly swollen, but he rallied in the second half of the fight – he scored with hard body punches at times, and boxed and moved effectively at others; the crowd gave the fighters a standing ovation at the final bell; many observers thought the decision could go either way, but the judges scored 98-92, 96-94, 96-94; after the fight, Jesus said, "When I boxed I did better, but it was too tough not to brawl. It was a real tough fight. I thought I hurt him, but every time I hurt him he kept coming back at me."...

On 1-18-08 in Brownsville, TX, he won a 10 round unanimous decision against lefthander Germaine Sanders (27-4): it was a good, close fight; Jesus pressed forward, but Sanders kept him off-balance with movement, boxed effectively at times and scored with counterpunches; Jesus consistently kept a busier pace and landed the harder punches, and won by scores of 97-92, 96-93, 95-93...

2007 – on 11-15-07 in Reading, PA, he won a 10 round unanimous decision against Juan Buendia (14-1-1): it was a fast-paced, exciting fight; Jesus scored a knockdown with a left hook that dropped Buendia to his hands and knees in the 2nd round - he got up and gave a strong effort in the following rounds, but Jesus consistently outworked him and landed the harder punches; scored 98-91, 98-91, 97-92...

3RD WBC CONTINENTAL AMERICAS W TITLE DEFENSE - on 8-17-07 in El Paso, TX, he TKO'd Jose Ojeda (14-5-3): Ojeda gave a good effort, but Jesus dominated the fight; he staggered Ojeda with a right hand in the 2nd round, then scored a knockdown with another right hand in the 3rd - Ojeda got up, but Jesus rocked him with a series of punches and the referee stopped the fight at 1:30; after the fight, Jesus said, "I wasn't in there looking for the knockout. I was trying to work off the jab, just trying to move around, work off that jab and look for openings. He made a mistake, didn't pay attention, and that's when I caught him."...

2ND WBC CONTINENTAL AMERICAS W TITLE DEFENSE - on 5-25-07 in Albuquerque, NM, he fought to a 12 round draw against Gilbert Venegas (10-4-2): the fight headlined at the Isleta Resort & Casino, drew a capacity crowd of 2,800, and was fast-paced and exciting; it was also very close - Jesus pressed forward and started fast, but Venegas counterpunched effectively and rallied in the middle rounds; Jesus rallied in the late rounds, but was penalized one point for low blows in the 9th, which made the difference for him in a win and a draw; both fought hard until the final bell; scored 115-112 Soto-Karass, 114-113 Venegas, 114-114; after the fight, Jesus said, "I really thought I won the fight. I threw more punches, but felt a little tight. I know I can do better. But he was tough, strong. And we both deserve a rematch."...

2006 - on 12-15-06 in Houston, TX, he TKO'd Luciano Perez (14-4-1): Jesus gave an impressive performance and dominated most of the fight; he boxed and counterpunched effectively, rocked Perez several times in the early rounds, and bruised him around both eyes; Perez rallied and rocked Jesus in the 4th, but Jesus came back later in the round and cut Perez under his left eye; Jesus steadily wore down Perez, bloodied his mouth, and Perez' corner stopped the fight after the 6th round...

1ST WBC CONTINENTAL AMERICAS W TITLE DEFENSE - on 10-20-06 in Cicero, IL, he TKO'd previously undefeated prospect Michel Rosales (11-0): Jesus started fast, but was warned for low blows in the 3rd round; he landed several hard body punches, but was penalized one point for a low blow in the 5th; Rosales rallied in the middle rounds and Jesus was penalized another point for low blows in the 8th; but Jesus came back strongly in the late rounds, scored a knockdown with a series of punches in the 11th round that dropped Rosales to one knee, and the referee stopped the fight at 2:21...

"My father was a professional boxer. He was in the gym all the time when I was little. I started training when I was 17. I had 14 amateur fights, with 13 wins and one loss. All of my brothers were boxers, but only one still fights, Jose."...

Jesus is married and has three young daughters...

His hometown is a city of 200,000 people on Mexico's eastern shore of the Gulf of California that has also produced former WBC and WBO light flyweight world champion Jorge Arce, WBC-WBO bantamweight world champion Fernando Montiel, and WBC lightweight world champion Humberto Soto...

Co-manager Francisco Espinoza said, "Jesus started boxing with Manuel Montiel, who has, I think, the best school for boxing in all of Mexico. This school in Los Mochis has been owned for years by the Montiel family. Manuel Montiel is the father of Fernando Montiel, the two-time WBO jr. bantamweight world champion, and world champion Jorge "Travieso" Arce is another fighter from his school. They've had many, many other good fighters, they are all very skilled and educated."...
